Brownie map illustrated by Helena Garcia. © 2009 Girl Scouts of the United States of America. All Rights Reserved.

girl scouts of wisconsin southeast

WOW!

Snapshot of the Brownie Journey

Session 1	Loving Water: The Girl Scout Brownies begin exploring the Wonders of Water, what they LOVE about water, and why it's important to protect water.
Session 2	"Green" Tea for a Blue Planet: Through a festive tea party, the Girl Scout Brownies learn about the water cycle and why it's important to save and protect it.
Session 3	Water for All: Girl Scout Brownies engage in water-gathering and rationing activities to learn how families make do in places where clean water is scarce.
Session 4	Teaming Up to Advocate for Water: The Girl Scout Brownies create a team plan to SAVE water.
Session 5	Advocates Communicate!: Girl Scout Brownies prepare to carry out their SAVE project as a team. They learn about a local water issue through a field trip or special guest speaker.
Session 6	SAVE!: The Brownies Team advocates for saving water.
Session 7	Planning to SHARE: Girl Scout Brownies discuss the success of their SAVE effort and what they learned from it as they plan how to inspire others to protect water.
Session 8	SHARE!: The Girl Scout Brownies SHARE what they've learned and how they have acted to SAVE water with others.
Session 9	WOW!: Girl Scout Brownies look back on their journey, from loving water as individuals, to saving water as a team, to sharing what they know, with even more people.

Sample Activities for Mapping Your Journey

Traditions:
Make a S.W.A.P. with something from nature.

Outdoors:
Visit a Girl Scout camp and learn about protecting the water there.

Badges:

Potter:	Visit a ceramics studio and make a clay pot.
Household Elf:	Help your family save energy, save money and save the planet.
Hiker:	Go on a nature scavenger hunt or decorate a walking stick.

Trips:
Visit places where people help people, like a food pantry, hospital, or nursery school.

Cookies:
Ask your Girl Scout cookie customers what changes they'd like to see in the community. Use their ideas for possible Take Action projects. Think about using some of your cookie proceeds to fund your journey trips or a Take Action project.