Teambuilding

Get ready to experience action learning or learning by doing. Adventure activities are fun and highly effective in teaching life skills to girls of every age:

- Everyone is involved in solutions to age appropriate challenges that engage girls in positive teamwork.
- Girls are encouraged to attend a challenge event each time they move up a level in Girl Scouts.
- Each grade level event is a building block for the next and girls experience new activities, increased challenges, and learn new skills.
- This indoor session for Girl Scout Brownies focuses on listening and cooperating while using the values of sharing and caring.
