

Girl Scouting works!

An estimated 59 million American women are former Girl Scouts. That's one of every two women! Compared with women who did not participate, those who were Girl Scouts:

- Feel better about themselves
- Are better educated
- Are more active as mentors and community volunteers
- Enjoy higher household income
- Vote more regularly

These are some of the amazing things Girl Scouts do today:

- Turn ordinary household items into robots
- Convince the mayor to install a swing for special-needs children in the park
- Hike the Appalachian trail

She doesn't have to wait any longer.

The fun starts now at www.gswise.org.

What if she felt like she could do anything?

With Girl Scouts, she will.

When she just can't wait for what she'll do next, she can do anything.

At Girl Scouts, girls have new experiences that give them that super-excited, jumping, giggling, butterflies-in-the-stomach feeling. Experiences that inspire them to look forward to what they're going to do today, tomorrow, and even ten years from now, by helping them realize that they can be anything they want to be.

Who do you want the girl in your life to become?

Whether she is 5 or 17, you want her to become self-confident, strong, and compassionate. To respect herself and others, make good decisions, be open to new challenges, and use her skills and talents to make her world a better place. To build strong friendships, be a leader, and put her values into practice in her everyday life.

Her time with us will be filled with new friends, tons of fun, and more “wow” moments than she’s ever imagined.

The experience can be as individual as each girl.

It's easier than ever to take part in Girl Scouting. Whether girls are looking for a year-round or short-term option, what's unique about Girl Scouts is that there's not just one way to be one!

Troop. A great introduction to Girl Scouting and the most common path for girls in grades K-5. Meeting regularly, girls can share incredible experiences with girls their own age, from adventures to community action, all while having fun.

Camp. Does she love learning about nature and the environment? Girls can choose to camp with us by day or overnight.

Events. Most girls have more than one passion. Choose events centered on her favorites, whether it's performing science experiments, creating art projects, cooking simple meals, or learning to protect the planet's water supply.

Middle and high school girls can also take part in Series that let girls explore their interests together in a way that fits their schedules and Travel where girls see new places, meet new people and learn about different cultures and ideas.

Whatever path she chooses, we design activities to teach girls about themselves and their world. A year with us is filled with the kind of moments she just can't wait to tell everyone about.

Make every day her best day ever

As a Girl Scout volunteer, you'll introduce girls to new experiences that make every day the best day ever. With you, she'll develop skills and confidence that will last a lifetime.

Schedule tight? No problem. There are endless, flexible ways to participate. Spend a day coaching a sports clinic. Plant a rain garden with girls. Or lead a discussion on creating healthy friendships.

Help girls to get there. By volunteering with Girl Scouts, you're helping to provide not only fun activities but also critical skills like collaboration, conflict-resolution and problem-solving. Watch girls gain confidence and stretch to reach their potential and know that you helped get them there.

Broaden your horizons. Develop your own leadership skills by serving as a role model to your daughter and other girls. Reap the benefits of networking opportunities brought about by being involved in community activities. Considering a job change or re-entering the workforce? Learn new skills to keep building your resume.

Become the role model she'll always remember.
