

The Funkin Farm Education Program for Girl Scouts

The Funkin Farm is a family operated produce farm located in Somers. Girl Scouts are invited to come out to the farm and experience the daily operations of a fresh to market farm. Our courses provide hands-on, interactive, and real-world environment learning. Choose from one of the courses below or ask how we may accommodate the badge your troop is working toward.

Contact Farmer Stephanie Funk
262-909-0644 · sfunk0693@gmail.com
11201 12th Street Kenosha, WI

Seeds, Sprouts, & Plants

Learn about seeds, the factors that contribute to starting different seeds, and the germination process. Then, plant your own seed to take home and watch grow!
Open to All Levels

Earned or Related Awards:
Daisy Between Earth & Sky
Brownie WOW!,
Junior Gardener,
Senior Sow What?

Available: April-Early June
Cost: $10/girl
includes patch

Bug & Butterfly Garden

Contribute to a Bug & Butterfly Garden in many different ways including design, planting flowers & shrubs, building habitats, making signage, maintaining the garden.
Open to All Levels

Earned or Related Awards:
Daisy Between Earth & Sky
Brownie Senses or Brownie Bugs
Junior Gardener
Cadette Woodworker
Senior Sow What?

Available: Mid May-August
Cost: $8/girl includes patch

Fall Harvest

Explore crops during harvest season. Discuss how different crops produce fruit and how to properly harvest it. Get hands on experience with different varieties.
Open to All Levels

Earned or Related Awards:
Daisy Between Earth & Sky, Brownie Senses or Brownie Bugs, Senior Sow What?

Available: August-October
Cost: $10/girl, includes patch

Farm Engineers

Learn about all of the controls that impact seed starting, plant growth, harvesting, and storage. Work on design projects to solve everyday challenges on a small farm and increase efficiencies. Schedule two sessions to complete the steps for the Think like an Engineer Journey. Use what you've learned about Agricultural engineering to make the world a better place.

Open to Cadette - Ambassadors
Cost: $12/girl, includes patch