Day Camp: Out of this World

Day Camp is a place where everyone can be their true selves. Fun, new adventures that are out of this world await you. If you’ve never been to day camp, you are in for an interstellar adventure! What is your camp name? What decade is your favorite? How creative is your inner-alien? Lakeland Camp honors special, long-standing traditions for every level of camper, teen and adult, mixed with fresh ideas each year. Archery, cooking over a fire, hammock city, outdoor skills and yoga are just a few highlights. Lakeland Camp also gives back to the community with a special all-camp project that is different each year. Bring your special dad, step-dad, big brother, uncle or dude-friend (who is over 18) to have fun with you at camp on Tuesday (or any day, really). Girl Scout Juniors and older can experience their own adventures overnighting in a tent, complete with their own special programming. Our camp celebrity, Bert-a-Corn, can’t wait to see you!

Meet your Camp Volunteer Directors:

Julie “Squirt” Heinzl, Camp Co-Director squirtlakelandcamp@gmail.com

Career: Strategic Marketing and Communications and very proud Mom of 3 (Weazel, Sketch & Slapshot!).

Camp Start: Started as a Brownie and kept right on going through adult volunteer! Developed and ran the lacing program for the Woodland Trails SU, while in High School, for several summers. As an adult volunteer, I was a unit leader and returned to the lacing program for several years here in Lakeland before taking on the Co-Director role in 2017. My mom was a Camp Director at Chinook & Winding River. She set a great example for me.

Fun Fact: I love creativity. Drawing, dancing, sewing, cooking, acting silly and writing.

Favorite part of camp: The sights and sounds of people of all different levels of experience and bravery, coming together and having a great time while learning new skills and trying new things!

Nicki “Mama” Antonneau, Camp Co-Director mamalakelandcamp@gmail.com

Camp Start: 2nd grade Brownie with Lakeland Service Unit and continued through today. Stayed with Lakeland SU to keep the connections with previous campers who now come back as volunteers.

Fun Fact: My camp name has been MaMa since high school. I am a MaMa to many many people but just one biological child, my handsome son Marcus who is 28.

Favorite part of camp: continuing traditions, some that even no one knows about!! splashing in the puddles (with feet or 😊 golf cart) is one of my favorite and dear to my heart traditions

Amanda “Ernie” Meiners, Camp Co-Director, PA/CIT coordinator lakelandcamppacit@gmail.com
