

Milwaukee Youth Theatre Presents a Girl Scout Theatre Workshop and Performance of

Flora and Ulysses

April 27, 2023

Can a little squirrel change the human heart? After getting sucked up by a vacuum cleaner, a squirrel is rescued by Flora Belle Buckman, a 10 year old self-proclaimed cynic. She names him Ulysses and discovers that he has been reborn as a superhero. Indeed, this once average squirrel can suddenly understand Flora, fly and even write poetry! Together they embark on an adventure full of quirky characters and bursting with heart.

Written by JohnGlore and based on the Novel of the same name by Kate DiCamillo.

5:30pm - 6:30pm, Pre Show Workshop

In four, 15 minute sessions MYT students will present interactive demonstrations from four of our production departments. Girl Scouts will hear from our student Costume Designers, Light and Sound Technicians, Prop Creators and Actors. Each session will offer a chance to ask questions and perform a hands-on activity.

6:30pm - 7:00pm, Bathroom and Concession Break

Girl Scouts will have an opportunity to use the facilities, purchase $1 concessions and pick their seats.

7:00pm - 8:15pm, Performance and Talk Back

Our one hour performance will be followed by a 15 minute talk back with our student actors and production teams.
