

The Funkin Farm Education Program for Girl Scouts

The Funkin Farm is a family operated produce farm located in Somers. We invite the troops and individual members of Girl Scouts of Wisconsin Southeast to our farm to experience the daily operations of a fresh to market farm. Learn in a hands-on, interactive, and real-world environment.

Course	Description	Availability	Earned/Related Awards	Fee
Seeds, Sprouts, and Plants	Learn about seeds, the factors that contribute to starting different seeds, and the germination process.	March-Early June	a. Daisy: Between Earth & Sky b. Brownie: Brownie WOW journey c. Junior: Gardener d. Seniors: Sow What?	$10/girl
Bug &amp; Butterfly Garden	Develop a new Bug & Butterfly Garden in many different ways including design, planting, building habitats, making signage, maintaining the garden.	May-August	a. Daisy: Between Earth & Sky b. Brownie: Sense or Bugs c. Junior: Gardener d. Cadette: Woodworker e. Seniors: Sow What?	$8/Girl
Fall Veggies	Explore crops during harvest season. Girls may choose which varieties they want to learn more about and use that new knowledge to harvest fresh veggies!	August-Mid November	a. Daisy: Between Earth & Sky b. Brownie: Senses or Bugs c. Junior: Gardener d. Senior: Sow What?	$10/Girl Includes badge
Art on the Farm	Explore the farm. Look for beauty among the crops and scenery, then make a farm-inspired art masterpiece D/B/J Only	June-Mid November	Outdoor Art Badge for D/B/J	$15/Girl
Farm Engineers	Learn about the Engineer process. Use this process to help identify & solve real problems on the farm. C/S/A only	August-Mid November	Think like an Engineer Journey (C/S/A)	$15/Girl

Scan the QR code or visit <https://thefunkinfarm.weebly.com/for-girl-scouts.html> for more information and to book your visit to the farm.

Contact Farmer Stephanie
262-909-0644 · funkinfarm@gmail.com