

Girl Scout Day at the Symphony

Saturday, March 7, 2026

Bradley Symphony Center

212 W. Wisconsin Ave, Downtown Milwaukee

1:30 pm Meet the Musicians & Unlocking the Score

2:00 p.m. Concert begins

Festival City Symphony invites Girl Scouts, family members, and friends to “Pictures at an Exhibition,” a concert on Saturday, March 7, 2026, at Milwaukee’s beautiful Bradley Symphony Center. Girl Scouts are encouraged to arrive early for the 1:30 pm on-stage Meet the Musicians presentation, featuring instrument demonstrations by musicians of the orchestra. Music educator Lynn Roginske will also present “Unlocking the Score,” a child-friendly pre-concert discussion about the afternoon’s music selections.

Pre-concert activities and the concert are great for Girl Scouts of all ages. Participation relates to or completes steps 1, 2, and 3 of the Junior Musician badge.

Experience the magic of musical storytelling through three vibrant orchestral masterpieces. The concert begins with Benjamin Britten’s The Young Person’s Guide to the Orchestra—a dazzling exploration of each section of the orchestra. Next, selections from Edvard Grieg’s Peer Gynt Suite bring to life scenes of mystery and adventure, from the serene beauty of “Morning Mood” to the thrilling energy of “In the Hall of the Mountain King.” The program concludes with Modest Mussorgsky’s Pictures at an Exhibition, a vivid musical tour through an art gallery, where each movement transforms a painting into a dynamic, emotionally rich soundscape.

Girl Scouts will enjoy:

- Commemorative patch for each Girl Scout in attendance (available at the information table on concert day)
- Pre-Concert Activities (1:30 p.m. on-stage)
  - Meet the Musicians presentation featuring instrument demonstrations by orchestra members
  - Unlocking the Score discussion of the afternoon’s music selections
- Welcome from the conductor
- 90-minute concert performed by Festival City Symphony’s professional 65-piece orchestra
