

Ready-to-use and free financial literacy curriculum for Girl Scouts of all ages

1,500+

More than 1,500+ Girl Scouts learning with FitMoney curriculum

Achieve new badges by completing modules and lessons from FitMoney's financial literacy curriculum. Research shows financial behaviors are formed by age 7, so empowering young students with the personal finance tools they need is critical.

Financial literacy is more than the math, it's a behavior you'll need for a lifetime - and one that can earn you badges!

Earn 14 badges across all ages with free content

I highly recommend this program for anyone new to teaching financial literacy... [FitMoney] has lifted the enormous burden we face when beginning to teach a new course.
