

Subject: In a Nutshell: One week left in the Fall Product Sale!
Preheader: It's Not Too Late!

It's Not Too Late!

It's not too late to encourage your troop to set up online selling accounts and ask family and friends for support. If Girl Scouts sell products that are shipped directly (BarkBox, candles, magazines, and more!), there is nothing for the troop or families to do except earn proceeds!

Contact customercare@gswise.org to help you get started.

Final Week Checklist

Now is a great time to do one last push with your Girl Scout families and make the most of this sale!

- Log into M2 if you haven't already at gsnutsandmags.com/admin. If you cannot get in, contact customercare@gswise.org.
- Make sure all your Girl Scouts have launched their online selling account. The more that is done online, the less you have to do as troop fall product manager.
- Click on REPORTS at the bottom of your dashboard.
- This will show who has sent out emails, who has shared their link, and who has sales.
- Send an email to your Girl Scouts from M2
- Click on SEND MESSAGES at the bottom of your dashboard
- Filter and send specific emails to Girl Scouts (Encourage girls to send emails and congratulate those that have orders).
- Remind Girl Scouts they must enter their order card totals by October 23. If they only sold online, they don't need to do anything but choose rewards.
- Take a look at how many Girl Scouts are missing reward choices
- Click on REWARDS at the bottom of your dashboard.
- Girl Scouts flagged with an exclamation point are missing choices.
- See how much your troop has earned in troop proceeds.
- Click on REPORTS at the bottom of the dashboard and then SUMMARY REPORT
- Share with your Girl Scouts how the troop is doing toward their goal and share how much has been earned in troop proceeds so far.
- Review the TRAINING VIDEO at the bottom of your dashboard to review how to navigate the M2 system
